

Steps to Marriage

Booking

Celebrants can get very busy in the warmer months, so be sure to book as soon as you have a date for your wedding. You can email me renarobbo@yahoo.com.au or phone me on (02) 6764 2226 to check availability.

*The Notice of Intended Marriage will need to be completed by at least one of you (SEE PAPERWORK) and received by me no less than one month and one day prior to your wedding day and no more than 18 months prior to your wedding day.

1. Arrange First Meeting

I would love to meet you! The most rewarding aspect of my work is meeting couples from all different walks of life, getting to know them, and ultimately bringing them together in marriage.

During our first meeting, if you have not completed the Notice of Intended Marriage, and we are within the required time frame, we can do this together. At this stage, to secure your booking with me, I will require a deposit of $100.00

2. Paperwork

Get your documents together

Proof of Birth

You must provide proof of birth by original birth certificate. If you cannot find your original birth certificate and were born in Australia, you can obtain your birth certificate by applying at NSW Registry of Births Deaths & Marriages. If you were born overseas, you can provide either your original birth certificate or foreign passport, both of which must be legible in the English language.

3. Previous Marriage

If you are divorced you must provide an original Certificate of Divorce, or if widowed an original Death Certificate, both legible in English.

4. Notice of Intended Marriage Form 13

(at least one month and one day prior to Wedding Day)

As a legal requirement, you must complete the Notice of Intended Marriage and submit it to me at least one month and one day prior to your Wedding Day, the sooner the better as I often take bookings 12 months ahead. Read the notes carefully on page 2 of the Notice and follow all instructions. If you are confused or need help in filling out the Notice, you can contact me for assistance. You can download the form from:

http://www.ag.gov.au/www/agd/agd.nsf/Page/MarriageGetting_Married

5. Booking from Interstate or Overseas

If you are coming to our beautiful City, you have made a great choice for your wedding. You will need to contact me by email or phone to make a booking. You can download the Notice of Intended Marriage, complete it and have your signature/s witnessed. Read the notes carefully on page 2 of the Notice and follow all instructions. Once you have this completed and signed, you can mail it to me to secure your booking.

6. Immigration

If your Fiancée is intending to marry you in Australia, the Notice of Intended Marriage Form 13 must be completed (see above), and given to me together with a date for when you are planning your wedding. I will then type a letter to Immigration stating that you have booked me for your wedding and completed the Notice of Intended Marriage.

7. Witnesses

Your wedding ceremony must be witnessed by two people who speak and understand English, and who are at least 18 years of age. They will be required to witness the ceremony and sign the certificates.

8. Creating Your Wedding Ceremony

Now we create your perfect ceremony! It may be small and stylish, casual and relaxed, or lavish with all the traditional trimmings.

Every couple has their own ideas about their ultimate wedding ceremony, and there is a lot to be considered e.g. participants, venue, outdoor vs. indoor, music, vows, rings, special requirements etc.

I will provide you with samples of vows, ceremonies, and my own Wedding Guideline which you can follow during the planning process. You may also want to personalize your ceremony so that it reflects your values as a couple. Once we have gathered your ideas and my suggestions, I will put it all together, ready for your approval, unless of course you want it to be a pleasant surprise.

9. Closer to the Day

Over the months leading up to your wedding day, there will be a considerable amount of communication between us. Closer to the day, we will need to arrange a final meeting to check that I have received all paperwork, run through the final draft of the ceremony, and sign the necessary declarations.

10. Your Wedding Day

I will arrive at the venue with plenty of time to set up and speak to anybody who is participating in readings, music, witnesses etc.
